SUBJECT No. 277.

Fixing a limit to the number of subjects and the session of the Assembly.

Mr. Moulvi Dervish Peer, Anjuman-i-Himayath Islam, Mysore.

Summary of discussion.—(1) A limit should be fixed as to the number of subjects to be brought forward by a member of the Assembly.

(2) The sessions of the Assembly may also be limited to a certain number of days.

Reply of Government.—Noted.

SUBJECT No. 278.

Power of veto to the Representative Assembly.

Messrs. M. Venkatakrishnaiya, Madappa and N. Srikantaiya, Mysore City Municipality.

Withdrawn.

SUBJECT No. 279.

(a) Nomination of members to the Representative Assembly.

(b) Representation of Mahomedans in the Representative Assembly.

Mr. Moulvi Dervish Peer, Anjuman i-Himayath Islam, Mysore.

Summary of discussion.—(a) At present several large communities are left unrepresented in the Assembly. In such cases the Government may nominate members from such communities.

(b) Provision may be made to nominate one Mahomedan from every taluk and every Municipality to the Assembly as such an arrangement will tend to enlarge their sphere of usefulness to their community.

Reply of Government.—Noted.

SUBJECT No. 280.

The Shimoga Law Association.

Mr. Sitaramaiya, Shimoga Municipality.

Summary of discussion.—The Law Association at Shimoga may be given the privilege of returning a member to the Representative Assembly every year.

Reply of Government.—The matter has been already decided.

SUBJECT No. 281.

Privileges to ryots in inam villages.

Mr. Lakshminaranappa, Heggaddevankote Taluk.

Summary of discussion.—(a) The rules framed by Government prescribing qualifications for voters and members of the Representative Assembly may be extended to the ryots in inam villages.

(b) They may also be allowed to become members of Taluk Boards.

Reply of Government.—Noted for consideration.

SUBJECT No. 282.

The memo of subjects to be sent by the Representative Members directly to Government.

Mr. K. Krishnamurti Rao, Magadi Taluk.

Summary of discussion.—The present system of asking the members of the Representative Assembly to submit their subjects to Government through the Deputy Commissioners of Districts who are invested with the power to remove and alter the subjects at their discretion, curtails the independence of the members to have the subjects sent by them discussed before the Government. These may therefore be permitted to send their subjects direct to Government.

Reply of Government.—The rule is not meant as an obstruction but to eliminate subjects already disposed of. If subjects are wilfully struck out, the matter will be con-
